

Specification of subjects in doctoral studies

Subject code: ДМ1.7111Б
Study program: Forestry – Submodule 1.7. Silviculture
Type and level of studies: Doctoral studies
Subject name: Silviculture of lowland forests
Teacher (s): Martin T. Bobinac, DSc
Associates:
Subject type: elective
ECTS: 8
Condition: No conditions.
Subject aim: Introduction of attendants (students) to the distribution of lowland forest ecosystems, their spatial and temporal dynamics, degree of study, dominant influences, method of management, structure and morphology of stands, methods of regeneration and tending and the effects of modern approaches on the process of regeneration and tending of stands.
Subject outcomes: Capability of attendants (students) to define and apply the method of regeneration and tending of stands in lowland forest ecosystems in the territory of Serbia, in accordance with their ecological specificities and purposes.