

Specification of subjects in Master's degree studies studies

Subject code: MIII3103
Study program: Forestry
Type and level of studies: Master's degree study program
Subject name: Forest inventory
Teacher (s): Damjan S. Pantić, DSc
Subject type: compulsory
ECTS: 7
Condition: no
Subject aim: Acquisition of theoretical and practical knowledge related to different techniques and methods of collection (inventory), processing, evaluation (analysis) and presentation of information on forest stands and larger forest complexes, as well as pointing to the importance of the spectrum's width and reliability of information on the growing stock from the aspect of their further use in forestry and other areas
Subject outcomes: Knowledge necessary for performing narrowly specialized and specific jobs in forest practice related to the area of forest inventory, formation and exploitation of the growing stock database, as well as for continuing education in doctoral studies.