

Specification of subjects in Master's degree studies studies

Subject code: MIII71105/a
Study program: Forestry
Type and level of studies: Master's degree study program
Subject name: Forest products trade
Teacher (s): Nenad Ranković, DSc; Ljiljana Keča, DSc
Subject type: elective
ECTS: 6
Condition: The general condition and the prescribed minimum total credits acquired in undergraduate studies.
Subject aim: Through this course, the student will be introduced to the turnover of wood and other wood and non-wood forest products, which will enable him to successfully solve tasks and problems in the field of trade and exchange of goods in the field of forestry.
Subject outcomes: The subject enables the disposal of knowledge that enables the successful solving of the problems and tasks that the students may expect in forestry practice related to the marketing of wood, and wood and non-wood forest products. The following issues will be studied in the course: Goods turnover and trade; Domestic goods turnover; Foreign trade; Forms of wood sales; Technical and trade standards in forestry; Documents in wood trade; INCOTERMS Rules in International Trade in Wood; Disputes and their resolution; Commercial contracts; Payment and payment instruments for realization of trade contracts, etc.