

Specification of subjects in Master's degree studies studies

Subject code: MIII4102
Study program: Forestry
Type and level of studies: Master's degree study program
Subject name: Silviculture 1
Teacher (s): Martin T. Bobinac, DSc
Subject type: compulsory
ECTS: 7
Condition: no
Subject aim: Introduction of the students to the morphology and structure of the forest, the laws of development of natural forests and forest stands, methods of regeneration and tending of forest stands in accordance with their ecological specificities and purposes.
Subject outcomes: Capability of the studnets to apply methods of forest regeneration and tending in accordance with their ecological specificities and purposes.