

Specification of subjects in Master's degree studies studies

Subject code: MIII4103
Study program: Forestry
Type and level of studies: Master's degree study program
Subject name: Silviculture 2
Teacher (s): Milun R. Krstić, DSc; Branko Kanjevac
Subject type: compulsory subject – term 1
ECTS: 7
Condition: no
Subject aim: Study of causes of degradation of forest ecosystems, criteria for defining the state and degree of degradation of forests and forest lands, methods of conversion of degraded and devastated forests into forests of better quality; artificial regeneration and establishment of forests.
Subject outcomes: Training of students for determining the causes of degradation, analysis and assessment of the characteristics, criteria for defining the state and degree of degradation of forests and forest lands; for the selection of appropriate ameliorative-silvicultural methods for the conversion of degraded and devastated forests into higher quality forests; for the implementation of silvicultural works on the artificial regeneration and establishment of forests.