

Specification of subjects in Master's degree studies studies

Subject code: MIII41104/6
Study program: Forestry
Type and level of studies: Master's degree study program
Subject name: Silviculture of lowland forests
Teacher (s): Martin T. Bobinac, DSc
Subject type: elective
ECTS: 6
Condition:
Subject aim: To introduce students to the silviculture of lowland forest ecosystems - their distribution in the past and today in Serbia, the degree of vegetative, ecological and morphological study, the structure and morphology of stands, the dominant influences they are exposed to, the manner of management and application of certain methods of natural regeneration and tending of stands.
Subject outcomes: The capability of students to use methods of regeneration and tending in the stands of lowland forest ecosystems in the territory of Serbia, in accordance with their ecological specificities and purposes.